The Blue Foundation for a Healthy Florida Awards First Philanthropic Grants

Sixteen Florida Non-profits to Receive $925,000

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Blue Foundation for a Healthy Florida, Inc., announced today it has awarded $925,000 to 16 non-profit organizations throughout Florida in its inaugural grant offerings. The Blue Foundation, the philanthropic affiliate of Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida (BCBSF), is awarding the grants to support programs that positively impact the health and well-being of uninsured and underserved Floridians.

“These inaugural grants represent the significant positive impact that The Blue Foundation is having on the many health care challenges we face in Florida,” said Susan Towler, executive director of The Blue Foundation for a Healthy Florida. “With the support of BCBSF, we are accomplishing our goal of providing caring solutions through grants that will educate, train and improve the lives of individuals and families throughout Florida.”

The 16 programs that The Blue Foundation for a Healthy Florida is funding are rich in diversity, from educating older adults about prescription drugs, to training physicians on women’s heart disease symptoms, to improving the lives of adolescents with diabetes. The organizations receiving the first grants are, by geographic area:

"Almost 200 organizations applied for grant funding totaling $24 million in requests," Towler said. "We were pleased that there was so much interest in our goal to improve the health and well-being of uninsured and underserved Floridians." Following an initial review of all proposals, a team of Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida employees made recommendations to The Blue Foundation for a Healthy Florida board of directors, which approved the final grant offerings.

Towler said The Blue Foundation for a Healthy Florida plans to distribute up to $1 million in grants each year. Beginning in 2002, grants will be distributed twice a year in the spring and in the fall. The next request for proposals deadline is March 1, 2002.
