

The Shore at Pablo Beach, Fla.

Jacksonville Fla. 2/2/16

Dear Theo. & Ed.
We are both well
having a fine time
we visited this beach you can imagine what it meant to me to see Ocean for the first time we went by way of Electric a few miles south after crossing St. Johns river we picked shells on the beach & watched the tide come in it is a beautiful sight something I have always wanted to see, but never expected to in the evening we went to see the "Battle Cry of Peace" it was splendid & if it comes to Clinton you ought to see it. we leave Thurs. A. M. for St. Augustine. hope you are both well.
love from, A. J. & Hilma.
