

My Dearest:- (11/26/17)

This will not be a very long letter nor a very interesting one I'm afraid, for I have been in bed sick with Grippe + a cold, all day. I was awake last night again and felt so [illegible] when I woke up this morning that I decided to stay on bunk. Everyone has been fine to me today. My meals have been brought over to me and I am feeling better in every way tonight except that my throat and chest are quite sore. We have no further news as to when we will leave although it is known that the time is not so very far off.

I have taken care of the allotment of my pay so that you will receive $110.00 from each check.
That much is taken care of and satisfactorily so.

It was lucky that I brought some money with me for Fish was broke + I have lent him $15.00. We will all be paid in two or three days more.
Darling Girl, please excuse me for not writing more. I will make up for it next time. I don't feel so very chipper but will be all right in the morning. Give my love to Glad. Kiss my darling babies. With loads of love to you sweetheart, and millions of kisses.

Your Loving

Husband.
