

CROSS CREEK

WILDERNESS SAFARIS

· BIRDING · SUNSETS · FISHING ·
· NATURE PHOTOGRAPHY ·

Step aboard the "Yearling," a 22-foot pontoon boat rigged for adventure in Marjorie Rawlings country, where eagles soar over 19,000 acres of scenic splendor.

Come explore the wild waters of Lochloosa and Orange lakes, whose Cross Creek connection inspired the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, "The Yearling."

Safaris are limited to six individuals with a thirst for beauty. Two-hour tours laced with natural history start at $20 per person.

CALL

(904) 481-2757

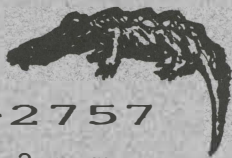

Between Noon and 2 p.m.

Or Write: P.O. Box 96

Lochloosa, FL 32662

For Reservations

CAPT. HOLLY HAYS

WILDERNESS
SAFARIS