Darling Girl:-

A short note is all I will have time to write today. I have more work than I can any where near handle today, but I must take time to tell you of my love for you dear, and send you some kisses. Wonderful news! Finit le guerre! It's nearly over! I love you. God bless you and the kiddies. I love you.

Am enclosing coupon to paste on package for me. It seems to be necessary . I will write a real letter tomorrow.

Love,

Daddy,
