

Friday, July 22

- 1:00-1:30 p.m. Registration. Lecture Hall (Bldg. E)
- 1:45 p.m. Welcome address. Alan J. Robertson, President, Santa Fe Community College.
- 2:00 p.m. Dr. Edna Saffy speaks on "Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings: Florida's Foremost Woman Writer." Dr. Saffy, who wrote her dissertation on Mrs. Rawlings' private papers, is a Professor of Rhetoric at Florida Community College.
- 3:00 p.m. Panel discussion on Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings. Moderator: Dr. Edna Saffy. Panelists: Idella Parker, maid and friend of Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings for 13 years; Sally Morrison, Rawlings House, Cross Creek.
- 4:00 p.m. Dr. Theodore Hemmingway speaks on "The Southern Experience: A Black Perspective." Dr. Hemmingway, Professor of History at Florida A & M University, received the Carter G. Woodson award for the best article on black history in 1980 and the Helen G. Edmunds award for his contributions to historical and inter-cultural affairs.
- 8:00 p.m. Dr. Thomas L. McHaney discusses "To Be or Not to Be: Faulkner and Youth." Dr. McHaney, Professor of English at Georgia State University, has published extensively. His works include books, monographs, plays, articles, and short stories. Formerly editorial board member of the Faulkner Journal, Dr. McHaney is widely recognized for his Faulkner scholarship.

Sponsored by
The Florida Endowment for the Humanities
Santa Fe Community College
SFCC English Department and SFCC Student Activities Department

Saturday, July 23

- 9:30 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts. Registration. Lecture Hall (Bldg. E)
- 10:00 a.m. Panel discussion on William Faulkner. Moderator: Dr. Thomas L. McHaney, English professor at Georgia State University. Panelists: Smith Kirkpatrick, English professor at University of Florida; Julia Hutchinson and David Hellmich, English instructors at Santa Fe Community College.
- 11:00 a.m. Mitchell J. Shields, the senior editor of Southern Magazine, discusses "Not Just About the South, But for the South." Mr. Shields has an extensive magazine and newspaper background. He has written for such publications as Columbia Journalism Review, Human Behavior, Quest, Washington Journalism Review, and the Atlanta Journalism Constitution.
- 12:00 Noon Catered lunch on campus. Cafeteria (Bldg. R) Room R-01.
- 1:00 p.m. Panel discussion: "Sense of Place in Southern Literature." Moderator: Mr. Mitchell J. Shields. Panelists: Smith Kirkpatrick, UF English professor; Josephine Humphreys, novelist; Dr. Theodore Hemmingway, history professor FAMU.
- 2:00 p.m. Author's reception. Bldg. R., Room 01. Refreshments. Piano medley of familiar tunes and favorite Southern songs. Deborah McDavis, SFCC English instructor.
- 8:00 p.m. Ms. Josephine Humphreys speaks on "Her Own Little World: Autobiographical Fiction." Her first novel, Dreams of Sleep, won the 1985 Hemingway Award. Rich in Love, her second novel has just been published and is receiving high critical acclaim. A graduate of Duke University, Ms. Humphreys taught college English before turning to full-time writing.