Contributions to Hillary Clinton for President Exploratory Committee are not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

Contributions to Hillary Clinton for President Exploratory Committee are subject to the prohibitions and limitations of the Federal Election Campaign Act. This law prohibits contributions from corporations, national banks, labor organization treasury funds, federal government contractors, and foreign nationals who are not admitted for permanent residence. All individual contributions must be made from personal funds and may not be reimbursed by another person. Credit card contributions must be made using the personal credit card of the individual contributor (or spouse/joint account holder) and not with a credit card issued to any other person, business or organization. Contributions to the Committee are limited to $2,300 per election by individuals (the primary and general are separate elections), and $5,000 per election by federal multicandidate political action committees.

Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in an election cycle.
