

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH FLORIDA 4567 St. Johns Bluff Road, South, Jacksonville, Florida 32224-2645 (904) 646-2960

College of Arts and Sciences
Department of Music
African American Music Program

October 5, 1997

Dear Colleagues:

The African American Music program at the University of North Florida, under the direction of Dr. Lenard Bowie, will present an exciting night of music making:

October 18, 1997
8:00pm
Andrew Robinson Theatre
"SYMPHONY IN BLACK"

The program will include compositions by leading African American composers, featuring UNF faculty and students as well as members of the Jacksonville Symphony Orchestra. The program will also feature the WORLD PREMIERE of UNF's jazz legend Bunky Green's "UNF Anniversary Song."

There will be a special performance of GOD'S TROMBONES which will feature two prominent Jacksonville personalities, the Reverend Davette Turk, Associate Rector of All Saints Episcopal Church, and the Reverend Rudolph W. McKissick, Pastor of Bethel Baptist Institutional Church in the roles of the Prayer Lady and the Preacher, respectively.

The evening promises to be historic, informative, and entertaining. Please mark your calendars and bring your friends.

Sincerely,

Bill Brown

TICKETS: $10 (ADULTS), $5 (STUDENTS)
CALL THE TICKET BOX OFFICE AT 620-2878 FOR RESERVATIONS