NOTE.

In connection with shelling of Camp Richard, there was no damage reported and no casualties although the shells struck in the lake and on the roads, as usual.

7. MUDY WORKS.

New dirt at 455.49-142.42. Observer reports that work at this point has the appearance of a pool.

New camouflage observed at 455.7-145.3. Enemy trench, nature of camouflage and its extent not reported.

8. SOUNDS, SIGNALS AND FLARES.

3:00 h, sounds of hammering heard in vicinity of Linge Nord.

Unusually small number of flares sent up by the enemy during the night, and no signals reported as such.

9. ACTIVITY OF OUR OWN TROOPS.

Six patrols sent out during the night, one the usual nightly patrol from Camp Richard and the others all combat patrols sent out from both C W's.

One patrol, an ambush patrol, others with missions to reconnoiter routes covered and also engage all en~ countered.

All patrol leaders reports and sketches attached.

10. GENERAL IMPRESSIONS OF THE DAY.

Sector more quiet than usual. Artillery fire lighter. Aerial activity also lighter, probably due to our increased activity in this quarter. Nothing of interest in the situation.

11. MISCELLANEOUS.

Prisoner Herbert Green, Pvt. 3d Company, 8th Jany Battalion, (Prussian), walked into G. C. Sperreham, F.
A. Pitons; G. B. Lingea, at 4:50 A. M., 10 October 1710. He was unarmed and surrendered to Cpl. Stone, acting as corporal of the guard. Information of the prisoner and all military information obtained from him forwarded in duplicate with prisoner.

James A. Newell, Lt. Col., 31st Inf.,
Regimental Intelligence Officer.

APPROVED.
