Dear Mary:

Well we are nearly through here but expect to be here still for a day or two. Then, as the dope looks now, we will go to Indiana to monitor in the guard there and after that to Fort Bay.

Harrison:

I didn't get a letter from you today and of course it made me homesick. I am feeling fine and working hard, and have been specially mentioned by the Major for efficient work.

So I am beginning to believe that there is some reward in this game after all.

How are you feeling today dear? I am anxious as can be about you, but I know that you will take care of yourself. It is terribly hot here and I presume it is there also. Tell all the friends that when this grind lets up a little I am going to write them. I am going to close now. I know this is a very short letter but I am so hot and tired it seems impossible to write more.

Love to Glad, lots of kisses for my Darling and with all the love in the world to you. A.B.
