PROPOSAL FOR
DIVISION ON WOMEN AND CRIME
STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

Eligibility: Any student currently enrolled at the undergraduate or graduate level.

Paper Specifications: Papers must be about or related to feminist scholarship, gender issues or women as offenders, victims or professionals. Papers must be no longer than 7500 words (30 pages) with an acceptable referencing format such as APA or MLA. Papers must contain an abstract of 100 words. Papers must be typed double-spaced and submitted on 8 1/2 X 11 paper. Three copies of the paper must be submitted with verification of student status. Papers by multiple authors are acceptable as long as all of the authors are students.

Deadline: Papers must be submitted by March 15, 1996 to the Awards Committee.

Judging: The Awards Committee will evaluate the papers based on significance of the topic, conceptualization, and clarity of the writing.

Award: A winner will be presented a $200.00 cash award at the Division meeting of ASC. In cases in which there are multiple authors, the award will be divided among the recipients. The winner(s) will be notified in writing by the Awards Committee by August 15, 1996.
TO: Chris Rasche, Division Chair
   Sue Caulfield, newsletter editor

Below is a draft of the meeting minutes I took at the Executive Counselor's Meeting. I understand that Sue will make sure the minutes are published in the next DWC newsletter. Chris if you want to make changes or deletions, let me know as soon as possible so I can give Sue the necessary revisions and/or the go-ahead to publish them.

Meeting Minutes
Wednesday, November 20, 1996

Meeting Facilitator: Chris Rasche, DWC Chair
Meeting Secretary: Phoebe Stambaugh, Executive Counselor
In Attendance: Evelyn Gilbert, Vice Chair
   Lynne Goodstein, Fast Chair
   Nicki Rafter,
   Brenda Miller
   Sue Caulfield
   Marjorie Zatz

Chris opened the meeting by handing out a draft of the Division's Business Meetings agendas for discussion and revision. Thus the primary purpose of the Council Meeting was to discuss and confirm an agenda for that meeting.

The meeting began with a discussion of the role and visibility of DWC members at the ASC executive level. Marjorie Zatz, a DWC liaison to the ASC's executive board announced that this year the contributions of two DWC members were honored with ASC awards. Meda Chesney-Lind will receive the Bloch Award and will be inducted as an ASC Fellow. Betsy Stanko will receive the Volmer award. Despite these awards, ASC women remain underrepresented. For example, less than 10% of ASC fellows are men. Thus, Marjorie suggested that at the upcoming business meeting, division members should discuss strategies for increasing the acknowledgement of women beyond awards offered by the DWC. She recommended that the Division explore ways...

Yep. You are correct. Your name is not spelled correctly. My apologies and I'll correct it. I'll remove the list of committees from the file I send to Sue for publication in the newsletter. When you draw up the final committee roster note that myself and Barbara Perry would be willing to serve on the student paper competition committee. We signed up at the last minute and I am not sure that our names are on the roster that you took back with you (somehow I ended up with an original of the sign up sheet, I don't know why.)

Much more concise! Only two observations: First, my name is spelled wrong (it's RASCHE). Second, I don't really want any committee lists published this way because I am still working on trying to fill committees for this year and this would just confuse the issue. Other than that, terrific! Susan may still want to condense it some more for newsletter purposes and to prevent substantive overlap with the actual Business Meeting minutes.

Your willingness to take minutes and be involved is deeply appreciated. I look forward to working with you more in the future.
