MUSIC

The Basie Alumni Johnny Hartman, who’s singing better now than he has in many years, is one of the jazz singers who’s never worked with Bebop, but his arrangements and vocal performances with include Buddy Tate, Al Grey, George Duvivier, and Butch Miles. June 14 at S. Looch Student Center, 506 LaGuardia Place, 996-7937. (Gibbs)

MUSIC PICKS

(Listed chronologically through the week, see listings for addresses, phone numbers, etc.)

Michael Shire and Tim Page

JON HENDRICKS & FAMILY Sing, sing singer! Sweet Basil, Wed.-Sat. (Shire)

NO COMMERCIAL VALUE Sweet Sweeback’s back! The one and only Merwyn Van Peebles “two-man orchestra” (the other’s a sax player) should deal some bad ass songs to pin your ears back. Soundscape, Wed.-Thurs. (Shire)

LIONEL HAMPTON ORCHESTRA We tend to take high-spirited, energetic, virtuosic institutions like Hemps for granted. Sun Rise says Hemps just the swingingest, and if that doesn’t convince you South Street Seaport, Wed. (Shire)

NOISE FEST Gang a’ din! Something worth seeing every night of this weeklong conclaves of the downtown avant-garde’s lineup of cacophonous clowns. White Columns Gallery, Wed.-Tues. (Shire)

JULIUS HEMPHILL TRIO Outdoors! Third One of the finest young reedmen on the scene! With master drummer Michael Carvin! And Ornette Coleman’s mind-boggling bassist. Jamaica Jazzhouse Harlem State Office Building, Thurs. (Shire)

NOISE R US, ART ATTACK, UT The former two are promising, ecstatic neo-fusioners; the latter nonpareil, raw, prime, new, avant garde, Thurs. (Shire)

YOUTHANASIA Don’t look now, but it’s another new rock disco, opening in grand style with two great reasons why 95 Records is so wonderful: ESQ (Fri.-Sat.) and Liquid Liquid (Sun.). (Shire)
