1996

Correspondence: 1996 Student Paper Competition

American Society of Criminology Division on Women and Crime.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.unf.edu/dwctext

Part of the Criminal Law Commons, and the Criminology Commons

Recommended Citation

December 2, 1996

Ms. Vaness Barker
Gallatin School of New York University
New York, New York

Dear Ms. Barker:

Thank you for submitting your paper to the American Society of Criminology’s Division on Women and Crime Student Paper Award. The Award went to Ms. Liena Gurevich at New York University. The Committee was highly impressed with your work and we encourage you to submit it for publication, if you have not already done so.

I apologize for not informing you sooner. I have been under considerable stress and experiencing some personal challenges; therefore, we didn’t get organized as early as we should have.

Again, thank you for your submission and please submit your work for this year’s award.

Sincerely,

Dr. Helen Eisenberg
Professor
Student Paper Chair
ASC Women’s Division on Crime
December 2, 1996

Ms. Jody Clay-Warner
Department of Sociology
Emory University

Dear Ms. Clay-Warner:

Thank you for submitting your paper to the American Society of Criminology’s Division on Women and Crime Student Paper Award. The Award went to Ms. Liena Gurevich at New York University. The Committee was highly impressed with your work and we encourage you to submit it for publication, if you have not already done so.

I apologize for not informing you sooner. I have been under considerable stress and experiencing some personal challenges; therefore, we didn’t get organized as early as we should have.

Again, thank you for your submission and please submit your work for this year’s award.

Sincerely,

Dr. Helen Eigenberg
Professor
Student Paper Chair
ASC Women’s Division on Crime

Serving Kentuckians Since 1906
Eligibility: Any student currently enrolled in school at the undergraduate or graduate level at the time of submission.

Paper Specifications: Paper must be about or related to feminist scholarship, gender issues or women as offenders, victims or professionals. Papers must be no longer than 7500 words (30 pages) with an acceptable referencing format such as APA or MLA. Papers must contain an abstract of 100 words. Papers must be typed, double-spaced and submitted on 8 1/2 by 11 paper. Three copies of the paper must be submitted with verification of student status. Papers by multiple authors are acceptable as long as all of the authors are students.

Deadline: Papers must be submitted to the Division Student Paper Awards Committee by April 30, 1996.

Judging: The committee will judge the paper based on significance of the topic, conceptualization, and clarity of the writing.

Award: A winner will be presented a $500.00 cash award at the Division on Women and Crime meeting of ASC. In cases where there are multiple authors, the award will be divided among the recipients. The winner(s) will be notified in writing by the committee by September 15, 1996. The committee reserves to right to give two awards if necessary or give no award if necessary.
December 2, 1996

Ms. Liena Gurevich
New York University
Department of Sociology
New York, New York

Dear Ms. Gurevich:

Congratulations. You have been selected as this year's recipient of the American Society of Criminology's Division on Women and Crime Student Paper Award. The Committee was highly impressed with your work and finds that it advances the body of feminist scholarship and makes an important contribution to the literature. We encourage you to submit it for publication, if you have not already done so.

I apologize for not informing you sooner. I have been under considerable stress and experiencing some personal challenges; therefore, we didn’t get organized as early as we should have. I tried to reach you at the conference without success and hope that we didn’t miss an opportunity for you to attend the meeting when the award was announced.

I have forwarded this information to the Chair, Chris Rasche who will arrange for your award check to be mailed to you ($500).

Once again, congratulations.

Sincerely,

Dr. Helen Eigenberg, Professor
Student Paper Chair
ASC Women’s Division on Crime