FORTUNE GARDEN PAVILION: 209 E. 49th St., (212) 753-0101. The kind of booking that has given room its reputation: Ralph Sutton, a sprightly, dapper, immensely talented player of stride and swing (alumnus of the World's Greatest Jazz Band, which has been heard in New York much too rarely in the past decade, until Fortune Garden started bringing him back. Through Sunday.

GARVIN'S: 19 Weeley Pl., (212) 473-5261. Kenny Werner, the imaginative pianist-arranger from the Red Light Band, leads his trio through tomorrow.

HIGHLIGHTS IN JAZZ: N.Y.U. Loeb Student Center, 566 LaGuardia Pl. at Washington Square South, (212) 998-4949. Even if you don't think you're into Latin music, it's hard to imagine anyone not responding to the joyous, life-filled sounds of saxophonist Paquito D'Rivera's Havana-New York Ensemble, sharing a bill with renowned guitarist Herb Ellis, Thursday.

MIDOD BLUES: 221 W. 46th St., (212) 221-0033. Iris Chacon through Sunday.

NIGHTLIFE WITH THE NIGHTBIRD

By Alison Steele

When April Showers come your way, they bring the flowers that bloom in May...and they also bring a host of golden moments (not difficult) to enjoy! I really don't know whether the change of season, the coming of Spring has anything to do with the kind of nightlife we are currently enjoying, or my imagination is running wild. I choose to believe in the magic of Spring, as in:

The beauteous Dixie Carter who springs into the Cafe Carlyle (35 E. 76th St., 744-1600) on April 3rd. Dixie is one of the ladies you enjoy weekly on TV's Designing Women, but is also a most talented singer. Her selection of tunes is just wonderful and that Southern belle spin she adds is delicious. Her debut at the Cafe last year was so impressive that they last time in inviting her back. So if you've got Spring fever and want an evening of romance, Dixie in the Carlyle is my prescription.

The Ballroom (253 W. 28th St., 244-3005) brings back a rare talent from March 27th-April 15th. He is Charles Pierce, one of the world class interpreters of female stars. This will be the Bette Davis Show, and his images are indeed mind-boggling. The theater setting at the Ballroom is lovely, and I recommend an early arrival for dinner or, at the very least, a tasting of their famous cappu....

Concerts and Festivals

Jon Hendricks and Company teamed up with the New Music Singers from LaGuardia High School of the Performing Arts for two daytime performances of “Take the Jazz Train” at Lincoln Center in early March, preceding the Poet Laureate of Jazz for his triumphal evening a short walk away at Carnegie Hall later in the month.

Speaking of Carnegie Hall, sometime between April 26 and May 5, as part of their centennial festivities, there will be an evening of jazz artistically directed by Wynton Marsalis and an evening of folk, led by Pete Seeger. At press time, CH’s offices had not yet responded to our inquiry on specific dates. (212) 247-8100.

Two series wrapping up at Town Hall this month are Not Just Jazz and Egbert Gismonti on April 6 and New Riffs with the Rova Saxophone Quartet on the 17th. (212) 840-2824.

Jazz Cleansinger’s Highlights in Jazz presents Paquito D’Rivera and the Havana New York Big Band on April 5 and Salute to Jimmy Heath on May 3. (212) 998-4949.

The artistry of Pilar Rioja

Pilar Rioja. The internationally acclaimd Spanish dancer from Mexico, will perform at 8 p.m. Wednesday and Friday at Repertorio Espanol’s Gramercy Arts Theater (138 E. 27th St.), where she just opened a nine-week engagement — featuring a world premiere flamenco dance and several new dances set to the music of Manuel de Falla.

Her impressive show also features flamenco singer Enrique Iglesias and guitarist Jose Negrete. Tickets range from $12 to $25. For schedule information and reservations, call (212) 889-2850.
