To Jack,
To a good appearance
Thank you
From me too.
Lew Soloff
To Jack,

Doesn’t seem like 16 years since I got the Downbeat Award.

Thanks for everything.

Jimmie Shadley
To Jack,
It's always so nice to meet you.
Great fun playing with you.
Best wishes,
Kathleen Ernst
The Women's Philathropic Society of the Greek Orthodox Church of the Annunciation is holding a Holiday Bazaar in the Church Hall at 302 W. 91st St., on December 1 & 2, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Members of the W.B. Yesta Society of New York (697-2765) will read the poet's one-act play about Jonathan Swift, "The Words Upon The Windowpane," followed by a cocktail party. The event is at the American-Irish Historical Society, 601 Fifth Ave. (50th St.), on December 4, starting at 6 p.m. Jack Kiehl's "Highlights in Jazz" series continues at Pace Downtown Theater (346-1715), on December 8 at 8 p.m. Two-act comedy by George Korsak, is about a successful businessman obsessed with power and the female anatomy. Performances are at the Pelican Theater, 750 Eighth Ave. (46th St.), December 1-16. Lew Tabackin Quartet, performs at Birdland (749-2228), November 30 to December 1. "Riverman," a play about the latter part of the career of British painter Walter Graeves, by Sam Dowling, is at the 29th Street Theater (685-0575), from December 6-23. Film archivist John Mueller presents a lecture on "The Art Of Fred Astaire" in Rm. 615 of Hunter College West Building, 68th St. & Lexington Ave., on December 5 at 1:15 p.m. Fans of the rock group Pink Floyd can experience the American Museum-Hayden Planetarium's newest laser extravaganza, "The Dark Side of the Moon," in which images are drawn on the Planetarium's 75-foot dome, while 30 speakers give out 9,000 watts of music from Pink Floyd's "The Dark Side of the Moon" album.
