AL GREY
NEW YORK AGENDA

Grey Area

The Highlights in Jazz series presents "A Tribute to Al Grey," featuring the jazz trombonist and his pals — such as Clark Terry, Red Rodney, Junior Mance and others — at the Pace Downtown Theater (3 Spruce St., between Park Place and Gold Street; [212] 346-1715) at 8 p.m.

‘SALUTE TO AL GREY’
PACE DOWNTOWN THEATER/ APRIL 2
What better way to honor Al Grey, the blowingest bone-plunger in the biz, than to team the ex-Basieite with three fellow practitioners — his son Mike (part of the working quintet) and new-generation luminaries Steve Turre and Robin Eubanks. Need more brass? OK. Add trumpeters Red Rodney and Clark Terry, with the bop- and blues-struck pianist Junior Mance thrown in for good measure, and you’ve got a whale of a show. (Al Grey also plays Trumpets Mar. 27-28) OK.

VOICE CHOICES

TRIBUTE TO AL GREY: This Highlights in Jazz program pays homage to a great trombonist, with or without a plunger, who has surprised everyone by coming up with one of the most provocative mainstream bands of recent years. Among the guests joining Grey and his quintet are Clark Terry, Red Rodney, Junior Mance, Steve Turre, and Robin Eubanks. April 2 at 8, Pace Downtown Theater, 3 Spruce Street, at Park Row. 346-1715. (Giddins)
SOUND BYTES

SACKBUT SERENADE: Winner of the first annual $1,000 Al Grey Musical Merit Award, Curtis Hasselbring, was serenaded after Jack Kleinsinger's Highlights in Jazz tribute to Grey. Shown are (l-r) Grey, Robin Eubanks, Hasselbring, Dennis Wilson, and Steve Turner. A member of Either/Orchestra (see p. 13) and a graduate of the New England Conservatory, Hasselbring teaches at Rutgers University while working on his masters degree in performance.
